

The Centre is envisioned as a catalyst for the economic growth and development of South Asia region by initiating, coordinating and facilitating regional as well as joint and collective activities on energy.

CPEC will not only benefit China and Pakistan but will have positive impact on Iran, Afghanistan, India, Central Asian Republic, and the region.

Islamabad hosts headquarters and regional offices of several major public and private oil & gas entities, including: These companies manage exploration, drilling, pipeline infrastructure, LNG import ...

ISLAMABAD: Pakistan has developed a new energy policy that will help the country attract $5 billion in investment through public-private partnerships, state-run media reported on ...

The net metering program of IESCO highlights Islamabad's new interest in clean energy and sustainability. The production of electricity from clean sources is expected to increase in the city ...

It includes new dams, solar parks, wind corridors and nuclear power plants. It also promotes demand-side management to improve efficiency and adds 8,120MW through net-metered ...

The partnership, announced at the Pakistan Cleantech Forum in Islamabad, will set the stage for economic growth, job creation, and increased international investment in Pakistan's ...

ISLAMABAD: Pakistan is set to attract $100 billion in investments to drive its ambitious green energy transition, aiming to expand renewable energy, cut carbon emissions, and build a ...

This initiative represents a significant step in Pakistan's dedication to renewable energy and sustainability goals. By considering these feasibility plans, Islamabad demonstrates its readiness ...

Web: <https://www.idsolar.co.za>